1. Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 11-31 October, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.

2. Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales
External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 16 October: Committee visit to Brussels. The Committee met the EU’s Chief Negotiator Michel Barnier to tell him of the work of the committee on assessing the implications for Wales of the UK’s withdrawal from the EU. The Committee also met the UK’s Deputy Permanent Representative to the EU Katrina Williams, representatives from Brittany and Normandy, Derek Vaughan MEP, Kay Swinburne MEP & Ian Hudghton MEP.

- 23 October: Resilience and preparedness: the Welsh Government’s administrative and financial response to Brexit - evidence sessions. The Committee took evidence from Michael Trickey Welsh Public Services 2025, Dr Victoria Winkler Bevan Foundation, the WLGA and the Welsh NHS Confederation. Transcript.

On 10 October the Committee sent a letter to MP’s outlining its six objectives for the amendment of the EU Withdrawal Bill. The Committee stated that Parliament’s response to the six objectives will have a significant bearing on whether the Committee recommends that the Assembly grants its consent to the Bill. The Committee also published a document setting out the rationale for its objectives.

On 11 October a debate was held in Plenary on the EAAL Committee's report on the implications of Brexit for Welsh ports.

13 October: Interparliamentary forum on Brexit – statement. Chairs of Constitutional and European Committees from across the UK’s legislatures met to consider issues related to Brexit. The Assembly was represented by David Rees AM EAAL Committee Chair and Huw Irranca-Davies AM, Chair of the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee.
