1. Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 10-24 January 2018, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.

2. Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales
External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 22 January: Members received a private briefing on the EU Commission Work Programme, and an update on the EU negotiations. Resilience and preparedness: Members agreed the draft report subject to minor changes.

The Research Service’s own blogs are published on In Brief. The latest Brexit blogs are Brexit Negotiations Monitoring Report and A Continuity Bill: Why and when?

Other

The Climate Change, Environment and Rural Affairs Committee has published its report on Marine Protected Areas in Wales.

The Economy, Infrastructure and Skills Committee is considering the use made of support from the EU and the impact of Brexit as part of its inquiry into Selling Wales to the World.

The Equalities, Local Government and Communities Committee is considering the implications of Brexit on Human Rights as part of its inquiry into Human Rights in Wales. The Committee held an informal discussion on the latest developments in relation to Brexit and Human Rights with the Equalities and Human Rights Commission and experts from the Assembly Commission.

The Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee has begun reporting on where subordinate legislation currently being laid before the Assembly may need amending after the UK leaves the EU.

The Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee has launched its inquiry into Powers in the EU (Withdrawal) Bill to make subordinate legislation. The consultation closed on 30 November.
