Question	Answer
01	Yes
02	Yes
03	Yes I would like to think it would be possible but maybe a multi-Disciplinary team would work better
04	Yes The strategy does not and has not benefited my child with his Needs. A diagnosis and discharge system is not adequate
05	The Welsh Government must consult with parents and Autistic people to has been requested on many other occasions to meet the need of the community in Wales.
09	Yes An assessment would be of benefit to many and would of been of benefit to my own child and Family.
10	Yes
11	Educational Psychologist so as to assist those children in Education.
12	Personally I do feel that those people on the spectrum without a Learning Disability are often overlooked and that a wide range of services are not available to them.
13	Yes
14	Employment details if applicable Housing Details- social housing need. Whether any agencies are involved if assisting the person/ so as to indicate those receiving assistance and those not.
15	It should be written on the Bill. Guidance as we have witnessed is purely a wish list which does not adequately meet the need.
16	Not sure
17	It should happen all the time.
18	I fully support and welcome the Bill.

19	I Do not wish the Bill watered down. In England it is generally known that their Bill is not worth the paper it is written on. In Wales we have the opportunity to raise the standard and show how it can be done effectively and more importantly implemented
