06	This is too long, why are the strategy and guidance not going to be published together? Surely the strategy cannot be successfully implemented until guidance is in place.
09	Yes
10	Not sure Yes, however it should be made clear that the list is not prescriptive and there may be other professionals involved or not involved depending on the individual's needs.
12	Knowing what services are available - sometimes helpful services are not well known or very well signposted by others.
13	Yes
14	All of the below if they wish to specify only Age at time of diagnosis Gender Their experience of the diagnosis progress and support since Who provided this support - was it free, funded through grants/charities etc, or privately funded?
15	It should be written on the Bill. Then it would be a legal requirement as opposed to guidance which would not necessarily negate a legal obligation for it to be followed.
16	Yes So long as it is shared with individual's consent and does not breach the new Data Protection laws
17	It should happen all the time. Autism doesn't only happen every three years it is an ongoing, everyday occurrence and as such we should be doing our best to raise awareness every day.

18	I think it will be a good move in the right direction.
