Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 6 – 27 November 2018, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.

The most significant development has been that on 4 December the Assembly voted to ‘Reject the Withdrawal Agreement and the Political Declaration on the future relationship between the UK and EU agreed by the European Council and the UK Government’. The UK Parliament is also currently debating the Withdrawal Agreement and Political Declaration and will vote on 11 December.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking inquiries into How is the Welsh Government preparing for Brexit?, Wales’ Future Relationship with the EU and the World - Part two, and EU law in Wales: What happens during the Brexit Transition?

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 5 November: The committee held a general Brexit scrutiny session with the First Minister. Transcript.
- 12 November: Private seminar on trade.
- 19 November: After noting papers the Committee moved to private session. Transcript.
- 26 November: The Committee held a general Brexit scrutiny session with the Cabinet Secretary for Finance. Transcript.

29 November: The Committee published its report: Withdrawal Agreement: Implications for Wales

On 5 November EAAL considered correspondence from:

- the First Minister of Wales regarding Hub Cymru Africa.

On 19 November EAAL considered correspondence from:

- David Rowlands, Chair of the Petitions Committee regarding Petition P-05-840 Fair Funding for Neath Port Talbot County Borough Council and all other Local Authorities.
- Robin Walker MP, Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Exiting the EU regarding the additional information requested following 11 October EAAL Committee appearance.
- The British Veterinary Association: No Deal Brexit and the Veterinary Profession.
- Jim Harra, Deputy Chief Executive and Second Permanent Secretary, HMRC regarding clarification on custom checks when landed in a destination state.
- The First Minister of Wales regarding the Withdrawal Agreement Assembly vote.

On 26 November EAAL considered correspondence from:

Other

7 November: Plenary debate - Equality and Brexit - Joint findings by the Equality, Local Government and Communities Committee and the External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

14 November: Plenary debate on the Finance Committee report on its Inquiry into Preparations for Replacing EU Funding for Wales

20 November: Plenary Statement by the First Minister: Draft Agreement on the Withdrawal of the UK from the EU

On 25 September the Finance Committee published its report into Preparations for replacing EU funding for Wales. The report made 11 recommendations, including those in key areas such as ensuring that Wales is ‘not a penny worse off’ after Brexit, and on funding and devolution of major post-Brexit funding sources such as the UK-wide Shared Prosperity Fund and agricultural support. The Welsh Government responded to the report on 7 November, accepting all of its recommendations. There was a Plenary debate on the report on 14 November.

The Climate Change, Environment and Rural Affairs Committee responded to the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs consultation on 'Health and Harmony: the future for food, farming and the environment in a Green Brexit'. In October the Committee published its report The impact of Brexit on fisheries in Wales.

The Children, Young People and Education Committee is drafting a report on the Impact of Brexit on Higher and Further Education.

The Culture, Welsh Language and Communications Committee is drafting a report on its short inquiry into the implications of Brexit in areas within its remit.

The Constitution and Legislative Affairs Committee publish reports on Subordinate Legislation relating to the UK’s exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee’s webpages. On 8 October the committee published its report Scrutiny of regulations made under the Trade Bill.
