Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU, UK, and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 19 March – 24 April 2019, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking inquiries into How is the Welsh Government preparing for Brexit? Wales’ Future Relationship with the EU and the World - Part two, and EU law in Wales: What happens during the Brexit Transition?

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 25 March: The Committee held a scrutiny session with the First Minister of Wales, Mark Drakeford. Transcript.
- 1 April: After noting papers the Committee met in private. Transcript.

On 25 March EAAL noted letters:

- from the Secretary of State for Wales to the Chair regarding the future of regional funding after Brexit - 12 March 2019.
- from the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee Chair to Committee Chairs regarding inter-institutional relations agreement between the Assembly and Government - 15 March 2019.
- from the Brexit Minister to the Chair regarding 11 March meeting follow up - 18 March 2019.
- from Robin Walker MP to the Chair regarding invitation to appear before the Committee - 18 March 2019.
- from the First Minister to the Chair in response to the Committee’s letter regarding the Assembly’s role in legislating for Brexit - 20 March 2019.

On 1 April EAAL noted:

- Supplementary Legislative Consent Memorandum (Memorandum No 2) Agriculture Bill.

- Report by the House of Lords European Committee on Beyond Brexit: how to win friends and influence people - 25 March 2019

On 8 March the Committee published its report: The Trade Bill - second report on legislative consent and associated issues. The Committee also published its first report on international agreements: Agreements considered on 4 March 2019. The second such report was published on 22 March: Agreements considered on 18 March 2019.

Plenary

19 March: Statement by the First Minister: Update on EU Negotiations.

20 March: Questions to the Counsel General and Brexit Minister (in respect of his Brexit Minister responsibilities), and Debate on the Children, Young People and Education Committee Report: Degrees of Separation? The Impact of Brexit on Higher and Further Education.

2 April: Statement by the Counsel General and Brexit Minister: Update on EU Negotiations.

The Research Service's own blogs are published on In Brief. The latest Brexit blogs are:
