Dear Mick,

I am writing to notify you that the 32nd Summit of the British-Irish Council will be held later this week, hosted by the UK Government. I will be representing the Welsh Government, along with the Minister for Environment, Energy and Rural Affairs. The Summit will receive an update on the work of the Council, and will discuss relevant political developments.

The Summit will be preceded by a Ministerial meeting to review progress in respect of the Energy work stream, which the Minister for Environment, Energy and Rural Affairs will attend.

A Communiqué will be agreed at the Summit, and I will update Members on the publication of the Communiqué, and the outcome of the Summit, in due course.

Best wishes,

Mark
