About children's rights:

1. How many of the participants said they had heard of children's rights?

2. How many said they hadn't heard of children's rights?

3. How many of the participants said they had heard of 'United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child'?

4. How many of the participants said they hadn't heard of 'United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child'?

5. List how old the participants were when they first found out about their rights?

6. List where the participants find the best information about their rights?

7. How did the participants think their rights had improved or not? And which areas did they feel were worse / better?

Please tell us the number of votes for each theme and the results of the vote:

My right to a good education

My right to good physical and mental health

My right to access travel

My right to feel safe at home

My right to feel safe in the area I live in

My right to be listened to by people making decisions which affect children

My right to access help and support if I'm disabled

Winner:

Were there any other rights mentioned during the vote that didn't appear on the voting slip already?

Was there anything else the participant said the Welsh Government should do for them?

Please share anything else you'd like us to know about the group and their thoughts on children's rights here:
