Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the National Assembly for Wales, and the Welsh Government; the European Union (EU); UK; Scotland; and Ireland. The period covered is 10 – 24 September 2019, although reference is made to later events where information is available at the time of writing.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking work on Changes to Freedom of Movement after Brexit: the implications for Wales and follow-up work on Brexit preparedness.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 16 September: The Committee held a scrutiny session with the First Minister. The Committee questioned the First Minister on developments in the UK’s negotiations with the EU, the Welsh Government’s ‘no deal’ preparations, Brexit related legislation and future funding for Wales in light of Brexit. Find the transcript here.

- 23 September: The Committee held a scrutiny session with the Minister for International Relations and the Welsh Language on the Welsh Government’s Draft International Strategy and its role in international trade negotiations post-Brexit. The Committee also held a session with James Duddridge MP, Parliamentary Under Secretary (Department for Exiting the European Union). The Committee questioned the Under Secretary on the implications of the UK Government’s Brexit position for Wales, the level of engagement between the UK Government and Welsh Government on Brexit, EU citizens’ rights and the EU Settlement Scheme and Brexit legislation. Find the transcript here.

On 16 September the Committee noted:

- Letter from the Counsel General and Brexit Minister regarding Brexit preparedness - 18 July 2019
- Letter from the Minister for Environment, Energy and Rural Affairs to the Chair regarding preparedness for Brexit - 22 August 2019

On 23 September the Committee noted:

- Letter from the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union to the Chair regarding attendance at Committee meeting - 12 September 2019.
- Letter from the Counsel General and Brexit Minister to the Chair of the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee regarding inter-institutional relations - 13 September 2019.
- Report by the Centre for Cross Border Studies on a new common charter for cooperation within and between these islands - 19 September 2019.

On 9 July the Committee launched its consultation into changes to freedom of movement after Brexit - implications for Wales. The consultation closed on 10 September, the Committee is considering the responses it received. The Committee published its fourth report on International Agreements: Implications for Wales in September 2019.

The Climate Change, Environment and Rural Affairs Committee has been undertaking an inquiry into Environmental principles and governance post-Brexit, is considering the Legislative Consent Memorandum on the UK Fisheries Bill.

The Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee publish reports on Subordinate Legislation relating to the UK’s exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee’s webpages.
